V. Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims	1-26	YES
	Claims		NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims	1-26	YES
	Claims		NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims	1-26	YES
	Claims		NO

2. Citations and explanations

In this report reference is made to the following search report citation:

D1: WO 01/91398 A (EHLERS GAVIN WALTER; SMUTS WALTER BAM (ZA)) 29 November 2001 (2001-11-29)

1.1 Claim 1 relates to a method for the authentication of a data processing system with the aid of an authorisation server.

D1 discloses a similar method where a user is only allowed access to a server once the user and an authorisation server have transmitted the same password to the server.

The subject matter of claim 1 differs from the subject matter of D1 in that the data processing system to be authenticated itself generates the authentication information - with the aid of the authorisation servers.

The problem addressed can therefore be considered that of authenticating a data processing system without the need to transmit the authentication information from the authorisation server to the user and to the server.

Since no such solution to the problem of interest is mentioned in any of the prior art documents, the subject matter of claim 1 satisfies the PCT requirements for novelty and inventive step (PCT Article 33(2) and (3)).

- 1.2 Claim 21 discloses an arrangement for carrying out the method as defined in claim 1. Claims 22 and 26 disclose a method and an arrangement, respectively, as in claims 1 and 21, wherein the first and second data processing systems are disposed in an electrophotographic printing or copying system, or rather in an operator station thereof. These claims therefore also satisfy the PCT requirements for novelty and inventive step (PCT Article 33(2) and (3)).
- 1.3 Claims 2 to 20 and 23 to 25 are dependent on claims 1 and 22 respectively and therefore also satisfy the PCT novelty and inventive step requirements.
